Directions: Answer the following questions specifically and legibly.

1. PLOT is a series of events from beginning to end of a story. Traditionally, plot consists of conflict, complications, and climax (highest point).

Tell me everything you know about the plot (events that happen in the story).

- Write at least 8-10 complete sentences total
- Do not start more than 2 sentences with "He...Her...She...They" – be sure to be clear and direct about which characters you are talking about – the people reading your book talk may not have read your book
- Be sure to mention any problems or conflicts the main character has or any decisions he/she is making

2. CLIMAX is the emotional high point of the story – where all of the details are revealed. In 3 complete sentences write about the climax of your story.

3. CHARACTER Comment on a major character in this book. What is the most important decision, choice, action, or statement this character made at any point in the book? Explain in at least 3 complete sentences.

4. How are you able or unable to connect to this character? Explain in at least 3 complete sentences.

5. What is your FAVORITE SCENE in the entire book? Explain in at least 5 complete sentences.
